2.Dragon's Blood 6:39

They fly on the wings of desire
But they'll fall in the storm of the lust
For they dare to tread higher and higher
And not learnt from the tales of the past

The quest for the secret of ages
The quest for the secret of old
It's not written in history pages
And only the wiser have told

They march in the night when the moon's shining high
They search for the highest prize
The ones who have dared in his cave now they lie
They paid the highest price

They lived a life of brutality
And they'll die with their broadsword in hand
For the gift of immortality
Lies there in the dragon's blood

In the dragon's blood

They follow the signs of ash, fire and smoke
They're leading the triumphant way
Victory songs sound wherever they walk
But won't keep the danger away

They march in the night when the moon's glowing red
The red that will cover the ground
The ones thought immortal are now lying dead
Their destiny is what they have found

Dragon's blood
Onward to their bitter end they are bound
Dragon's blood
In search for the secret that nobody has ever found

Cursing and screaming they all fall in fire
One after one they all died
Leaving the ground he?s now flying higher
Laughing at their false pride

Dragon's blood...
