10.The Answer's Yonder 3:48

The people stand and wait
The One to take the vow
And won’t return until the task is done

Is it written in my fate?
Or do I write it now?
Won’t matter anymore I am the One

I wonder where I am, I wonder where I wander
The voice inside me says “The answer’s yonder”

Left in this darkened place
Or it’s the dark inside me
I have to clear my mind to find the answer

There are so many ways
And paths that I can see
As life plays the drum I play the dancer

Still wonder where I am, For days and nights I ponder
The voice inside me says “The answer’s yonder”

So many roads to take
In fact there are only two
All that going forth and one that’s going back

It should be a mistake
To take the one I knew
And none’ll ever know what’s on the other track

Still wonder where I go, For days and nights I wander
The voice inside me says “The answer’s yonder”
